Resources

There are no required texts for this course. All reading materials and handouts will be provided through TCU Online under the weekly sections (located under the Content tab).

Grading

This course is a P/NC (Pass/No Credit) course.

To pass the course:

- 1) You will be required to attend and actively participate in (no sleeping, disengaged use of electronics, etc.) a minimum of 75% of the class sessions (see attendance and participation policy below).
- 2) You will also need to complete at least 75% of the basic assignments posted through TCU Online (which typically include short quizzes assessed by completion only, required pre-recorded content for viewing, short reflections, etc.)
- 3) Additionally, you will be required to take and pass the final assignment (see below).

The TCU Online portion of the course is organized by week under the Content tab. Check there the week prior to class to watch any required videos, find readings, and locate assignments due prior to the next class session. All dates and instructions are clearly marked under the weekly content section.

Final Assignment

At the end of the semester, you will be required to complete a final, comprehensive assignment through TCU Online. This personal reflection on the course content involves written responses to a series of prompts. To pass this assignment—which is a requirement of the course—you will need to complete and submit your original, coherent, and topically relevant written responses before the deadline (see schedule below) and achieve the minimum wordcount (assignment details provided through TCU Online).

Make-up assessments, late writing assignments, and grading errors:

No late assignments will be accepted for this class. Students will not be offered make-up opportunities for missed in-class assignments.

Exceptions to the late assignment policy include absences due to:

Illness: Provide documentation from the Health Center or from the attending physician.

Personal/family emergency: Provide verification through the Dean of Student's office.

Official university activities: Requires official class absence notice.

Please plan ahead for scheduled official university activities, completing assignments prior to these events.

If you believe I have made a grading or attendance error, please report it to me immediately. With the exception of the final assignment, grade and attendance disputes must be initiated within two weeks after grades are posted. Grade disputes related to the final assignment must be initiated within two weeks of the beginning of the next regular semester.

Participation Policy:

Students are expected to be present, engaged, and actively participate in course meetings. Please contact me if you need to request an exception to any portion of this participation policy or approved accommodations will affect your participation. I am more than happy to work with you, but timely communication is required.

Attendance Policy:

Attendance is mandatory for the course and must be in-person. Absences without approved exceptions will result in a reduction of the student's overall attendance in the course. (See notes above on Illness, Personal/Family Emergency, and Official University Activities for what might constitute a permitted absence. Approval for these exceptions is granted according my discretion according to class and University policy.)

Arriving tardy to class will result in an attendance loss of 25% of one class session. Students arriving 13 minutes after the start of the class will be counted absent. Each student with excessive absences (even if excused) will be required to complete additional work in the course to compensate for these absences to be determined by the instructor in accordance with the assignments of the course. Please contact me in a timely manner for attendance concerns.

Health and Wellness: If you are exhibiting symptoms that may be related to COVID-19 (fever or chills, dry cough, shortness of breath, etc.) or are concerned that you may have been exposed to COVID-19, you must self-quarantine and consult with the Brown Lupton Health Center at 817-257-7949 for further guidance.

In addition, you must notify the Dean of Students Office immediately at 817-257-7926. the Dean of Students Office will inform your professors that you are unable to attend class, and provide any assistance and support needed. Click here for detailed information concerning COVID-19 symptoms: <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus>.

Face Coverings and Physical Distancing: Face coverings are required in doors on campus, unless you are alone in your private office or dorm room. Students will be expected to wear protective face coverings at all times while in public spaces in doors on the TCU campus.

Student Access and Accommodation: Texas Christian University affords students with disabilities reasonable accommodations in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. To be eligible for disability-related academic accommodations, students are required to register with the TCU Office of Student Access and Accommodation and have their requested accommodations evaluated. If approved for accommodations, students are required to discuss their official TCU Notification of Accommodation with their instructors. Accommodations are not retroactive and require advance notice to implement. The Office of Student Access and Accommodation is located in The Harrison, Suite 1200. More information on how to apply for accommodations can be found at <https://www.tcu.edu/access-accommodation/> or by calling Student Access and Accommodation at (817) 257-6567.

Technology Policies

Email

Only the official TCU student email address will be used for all course notification. It is your responsibility to check your TCU email on a regular basis.

Course Materials

TCU students are prohibited from sharing any portion of course materials (including videos, PowerPoint slides, assignments, or notes) with others, including on social media, without written permission by the course instructor. Accessing, copying, transporting (to another person or location), modifying, or destroying programs, records, or data belonging to TCU or another user without authorization, whether such data is in transit or storage, is prohibited. The full policy can be found at: <https://security.tcu.edu/polproc/usage-policy/>.

Violating this policy is considered a violation of Section 3.2.15 of the Student Code of Conduct (this policy may be found in the Student Handbook at <https://tcu.codes/code/index/>), and may also constitute Academic Misconduct or Disruptive Classroom Behavior (these policies may be found in the undergraduate catalog at <https://tcu.smartcatalogiq.com/current/Undergraduate-Catalog/Student-Policies/Academic-Conduct-Policy-Details>). TCU encourages student debate and discourse; accordingly, TCU generally interprets and applies its policies, including the policies referenced above, consistent with the values of free expression and First Amendment principles.

Anti-Discrimination and Title IX Information

Statement on TCU's Discrimination Policy

TCU prohibits discrimination and harassment based on age, race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, gender expression, national origin, ethnic origin, disability, predisposing genetic information, covered veteran status, and any other basis protected by law, except as permitted by law. TCU also prohibits unlawful sexual and gender-based harassment and violence, sexual assault, incest, statutory rape, sexual exploitation, intimate partner violence, bullying, stalking, and retaliation. We understand that discrimination, harassment, and sexual violence can undermine students' academic success and we encourage students who have experienced any of these issues to talk to someone about their experience, so they can get the support they need.

- Review TCU's Policy on Prohibited Discrimination, Harassment and Related Conduct or to file a complaint: https://titleix.tcu.edu/title-ix/.
- Learn about the Campus Community Response Team and Report a Bias Incident: https://titleix.tcu.edu/campus-community-response-team/

Statement on Title IX at TCU

As an instructor, one of my responsibilities is to help create a safe learning environment on our campus. It is my goal that you feel able to share information related to your life experiences in classroom discussions, in your written work, and in our one-on-one meetings. I will seek to keep any information you share private to the greatest extent possible. However, I have a mandatory reporting responsibility under TCU policy and federal law and I am required to share any information I receive regarding sexual harassment, discrimination, and related conduct with TCU's Title IX Coordinator. Students can receive confidential support and academic advocacy by contacting TCU's Confidential Advocate in the Campus Advocacy, Resources & Education office at <https://care.tcu.edu/> or by calling (817) 257-5225 or the Counseling & Mental Health Center at <https://counseling.tcu.edu/> or by calling (817) 257-7863. Alleged violations can be reported to the Title IX Office at <https://titleix.tcu.edu/student-toolkit/> or by calling (817) 257-8228. Should you wish to make a confidential report, the Title IX Office will seek to maintain your privacy to the greatest extent possible, but cannot guarantee confidentiality. Reports to law enforcement can be made to the Fort Worth Police Department at 911 for an emergency and (817) 335-4222 for non-emergency or TCU Police at (817) 257-7777.

Obligations to Report Conduct Raising Title IX or VAWA Issues

Mandatory Reporters: All TCU employees, except Confidential Resources, are considered Mandatory Reporters for purposes of their obligations to report, to the Coordinator, conduct that raises Title IX and/or VAWA (Violence Against Women Act) issues.

Mandatory Reporters are required to immediately report to the Coordinator information about conduct that raises Title IX and/or VAWA issues, including any reports, complaints or allegations of sexual harassment, discrimination and those forms of prohibited conduct that relate to nonconsensual sexual intercourse or contact, sexual exploitation, intimate partner violence, stalking and retaliation involving any member of the TCU community, except as otherwise provided within the Policy on Prohibited Discrimination, Harassment and Related Conduct.

Mandatory Reporters may receive this information in a number of ways. For example, a complainant may report the information directly to a Mandatory Reporter, a witness or third-party may provide information to a Mandatory Reporter, or a Mandatory Reporter may personally witness such conduct. A Mandatory Reporter's obligation to report such information to the Coordinator does not depend on how he/she received the information. Mandatory Reporters must provide all known information about conduct that raises Title IX or VAWA issues to the Coordinator, including the identities of the parties, the date, time and location, and any other details. Failure of a Mandatory Reporter to provide such information to the Coordinator in a timely manner may subject the employee to appropriate discipline, including removal from a position or termination of employment. Mandatory Reporters cannot promise to refrain from forwarding the information to the Coordinator if it raises Title IX or VAWA issues or withhold information about such conduct from the Coordinator. Mandatory Reporters may provide support and assistance to a complainant, witness, or respondent, but they should not conduct any investigation or notify the respondent unless requested to do so by the Coordinator.

Mandatory Reporters are not required to report information disclosed (1) at public awareness events (e.g., "Take Back the Night," candlelight vigils, protests, "survivor speak-outs," or other public forums in which students may disclose such information (collectively, public awareness events); or (2) during an individual's participation as a subject in an Institutional Review Board approved human subjects research protocol (IRB Research). TCU may provide information about Title IX rights and available resources and support at public awareness events, however, and Institutional Review Boards may, in appropriate cases, require researchers to provide such information to all subjects of IRB Research.

Relevant reporting phone numbers are: 911 for an emergency and (817) 335-4222 for non-emergency or TCU Police at (817) 257-7777.
